Re: Keil, et al. v. the City of New York, et al., Dkt. 21 Civ. 8773;
Kane, et al. V. Bill de Blasio, et al., Dkt. 20 Civ. 7863

Dear Judge Caproni:

I am an Assistant Corporation Counsel in the office of Georgia M. Pestana, Corporation Counsel for the City of New York, attorneys for the defendants in the above-referenced cases (“Keil” and “Kane,” respectively). I write for two purposes: (1) to address the October 28, 2021 Order regarding consolidating the above-referenced cases, and (2) to request that the Keil matter be stayed pending appeal, as the Kane case has been.

First, defendants agree with the Court that the Keil and Kane matters should be consolidated. They unquestionably “involve . . . common question[s] of law [and] fact” (F.R.C.P. 42(a)), namely the validity and application of the DOE vaccine mandate and, in particular, whether the mandate violates plaintiffs’ Constitutional rights.

Second, defendants request that the Keil matter be stayed pending appeal, much as the Kane matter has been. The Second Circuit’s ruling on plaintiffs’ appeal of the Court’s decision denying plaintiffs’ Order to Show Cause for a temporary restraining order may affect defendants’ approach to these cases, and thus waiting to respond to the Complaints until after the Second Circuit has ruled would be most efficient and just. F.R.C.P. 1.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Amanda C. Croushore
Assistant Corporation Counsel
